Acknowledgments

I first want to thank my beautiful wife and best friend, Shelley, for close to 20 years now of constant love. I could not have completed this book without her behind-the-scenes support, understanding, counsel, and encouragement. Shell, you are awesome.

A big thanks also to my two wonderful daughters, Zoe and Bailey, for their sacrifice of time so that Daddy could work on his books. Girls, you are the best kids that a dad could have.

I want to acknowledge my parents, Paul and Darlean, for their ongoing love and support.

I appreciate everyone at Apress who contributed to helping me produce this book, especially Gary Cornell, Jim Sumser, Sofia Marchant, Jennifer Whipple, Ellie Fountain, and Tina Nielsen. Also, many thanks to my technical reviewer, Judith Myerson.

I am grateful to you, the many readers who have shown such a great interest in my books over the past several years. Thank you for your continued support and feedback as I try to make each book better for you.

Finally, I give the ultimate thanks to God. He is the source of my skills, my talents, and my gifts. I'm also thankful for the gift of abundant and eternal life given to me by God through his son, Jesus Christ. I don't deserve what I've been given, but I'm immensely grateful for having received it, and I continually seek opportunities to share it with others.
